Subject: Resolution Making Appointments to the Colonial Community Criminal Justice Board.

Presented for your consideration is a resolution making appointments to the Colonial Community Criminal Justice Board. The City has four appointments that Council must make and we are told in advance who those appointees must be except for our local representative.

Lieutenant Kelly Waddell's appointment will expire on November 30, 2017 and the Colonial Community Criminal Justice Board has requested that he be reappointed for a term which will expire on November 30, 2020. They note that his expertise is of benefit to the Board.

The other appointments are mandated positions which are regulated by the Joint Exercise of Power Agreement and the Code of Virginia. Three of the members (Magistrate, Virginia Peninsula Regional Jail and Colonial Behavioral Health) are to be appointed by Poquoson. David Coe, Executive Director of Colonial Behavioral Health, and the Honorable Virginia Munoz, Chief Magistrate are currently serving on the Board and we have been requested to reappoint them. Tony Pham, Administrator of the Virginia Peninsula Regional Jail is a new appointment due to the retirement of John Kuplinski.
