

Bringing the Boo to You is brought to you by the City's Community Recreation Office this Halloween. Program is Free

How to participate? Complete an online registration form at the Community Recreation website or visit the Community Recreation Office by October 26 to complete a Registration Form providing your child's name, age and address for delivery.

Once registered the Community Recreation's Boo Crew will make a special visit to the address provided with a package of Halloween Treats (and a few tricks), and including information on how to view the Poquoson Public Library's Special Halloween night story time. It will broadcast on the Library's Facebook page, YouTube Channel & local channel 46 (Cox) and 24 (Fios).

It's anticipated visits will be the afternoon of October 31, 2020 prior to 6pm. If you are not home, we will leave your package on your porch.

Recommended for ages 10 and under.
